Do you ever thank the Lord for the wonderful privilege of being able to pick up the entire Bible and read any portion of it in your own language? How blessed we are! According to the Wycliffe Bible Translators' site, the full Bible is available in 554 languages. That means that there are still 1,800 translations needed, in addition to the more than 2,267 active projects going on right now around the world.

We were so pleased this week to Skype with a friend from Wycliffe serving in Cote d'Ivoire. Laurel was in our home town of Bondoukou getting ready for a meeting with church leaders from many denominations. SIL (Wycliffe) is moving forward with their plan to translate the Bible into Koulango, the native language of a good many of our Ivorian friends. One of her roles is to unite believers to support the project through prayer, funds, and assistance in translation. Finding Koulangos to champion the project who agree to work cooperatively will significantly speed the process. She was pleased with this initial meeting. We rejoice to think of the lives that will be touched by having God's Word in their heart language. Prayer and Praise:

-  Pray for the many Bible translation works occurring worldwide, especially the Koulango project that should soon be under way.
-  The update of our will and trust is almost complete. We devoted many hours to that process in the past 10 days, and we appreciate the law office that has expedited the process since Verlin is leaving soon.
-  Continue asking the Lord to prepare the way for Verlin to find the vehicle suited to our ministry needs. One Ivorian car mechanic is checking out options even now.
